

Call for Nominations: Student Speakers Preview of Application

The National Center for Families Learning (NCFL) is seeking student speakers for the 2020 Families Learning Conference. This event will be held Oct. 19-21 at the Renaissance Dallas Addison in Dallas, Texas. NCFL will pay travel, accommodation, and related expenses for the student speakers and one guest per student.

This application closes at 11:59pm PDT on Friday, May 1, 2020. This application may be completed by the student or someone nominating a student.

Please note: this document is for reference only and will not be accepted as an application for the Call for Nominations. To apply, you must use the online form located here: <http://bit.ly/ncfl20studentspeakers>

All questions are required unless noted otherwise.

Enter the nominator's information (not required for self-nominations)

- Name
- Title
- Organization or School Name
- Work Address
- Email Address
- Work Phone

Nominated student's information

- Name
- Current Occupation or School
- Program Site Name
- Address
- Email Address
- Phone Number

Basic Information

- How long did the family participate in the family literacy or learning program?
- What was the student's highest level of education when they enrolled in family literacy or family learning programming?
- What is the student's current level of education?
- How many children does the student have?

Student Success

- What impact has family literacy or family learning had on the student's life? Consider opportunities they have gained as a result of the program as well as the personal goals they have achieved from participating in the program.
- What is this student's favorite aspect or outcome from participating in family literacy or family learning?

Family Impact

- What impact has family literacy or family learning had on the student's child(ren)? You may also share how the program has impacted other members of the family.
- What goals has the student's family accomplished as a result of, or since participating in, the family literacy or family learning program?

Anything else?

- Please share anything else about the student's story that you think attendees of the Families Learning Conference would like to know. (Optional)